Small Group Questions / Discussion

We are in unprecedented times, there's no doubt, but there is no need for panic because with every revealed problem, He is the answer. And I believe that God is reintroducing himself to the church as the I AM WHO I AM, the constant in a world that's changing rapidly. The covenant keeping God. The God of every moment, the fulfillment of every promise, the eternal self existing God , I will be what I will be. A God who we need in our lives today. Right now church isn't functioning as we have known it, the economy is uncertain in many ways, and it may seem like the things that God has spoken over your life seems so far away or even impossible at the moment, but He isn't finished with you, He is working in it all and through it all. "I AM WHO I AM."

Often we look to God and trust Him when things are going well, but when things go in reverse we struggle to live with this same level of trust, and we become unrested and even stressed or anxious. How do you deal with stress and anxiety? What does God say about it? Are there mindset shifts that would benefit you?

Are there situations that you are facing now where you need to know that God is in control and trust that He has your best interest at heart?

How does a heart understanding of that name "I AM" help you to do this?

What is your default position in navigating change?

Is there someone in your life that would benefit from hearing this truth?
