Sermon Notes:

A more complete Gospel – is more than just adding to our life,
it gives us a NEW life

- Following Jesus is the hardest thing you will do (Luke 9:57-62)
- To live this new life is to Unsubscribe from our selfish nature
- Discipleship takes believers and makes them followers!
- Actively subscribing to Jesus values and desires

The Reward for following Jesus is Jesus – his life, his purpose, his kingdom

Small Group Questions/Discussions

The Christian life can at times bring a rush of excitement and emotion. However, just emotion and excitement does not always empower the believer beyond the experience itself. Similarly, many believers enjoy the emotional highs of faith but do not progress to true discipleship. Following Jesus is challenging and requires full commitment, and is not just an addition to one's life. Luke 9:57-62, 1 Peter 1:3, Ezekiel 36:26, and 2 Corinthians 5:17 articulate the new life and not just a new addition that becoming a disciple brings about. Authentic spiritual growth demands abandoning worldly values and fully committing to Jesus, which is both difficult and rewarding. The ultimate reward for following Jesus is a deep union with Him, leading to empowerment and a life of purpose.
